"SLING Fling will give cable customers an opportunity to experience SLING TV's extensive line-up of live and on-demand content, so they can happily leave cable behind with confidence," said Michael Schwimmer, group president, SLING TV. "Cable customers have suffered for too many years and they just want a better option — the channels they love at a much lower price. Our goal is to give everyone the chance to explore the benefits of live streaming with SLING TV, and join the millions of SLING TV subscribers who save money and enjoy their favorite sports, news and entertainment."

The SLING Fling event, which coincides with National Cut the Cord Day, introduces new customers to over 100 live and on-demand channels, from SLING Orange and SLING Blue (a $50 value), Kids Extra, Lifestyle Extra, News Extra and Comedy Extra (a $13 value) and SHOWTIME (a $10 value). SLING Orange and SLING Blue offer top sports, news and entertainment channels like AMC, A&E, FS1, TNT, Cartoon Network, CNN, TLC, HGTV, History and more. Plus, as an added bonus, viewers will receive 50 hours of free DVR storage.

To sweeten the deal, SLING TV is offering new customers their first month of SLING Orange or SLING Blue for $10, a $25 discount. New customers may also choose to receive a free AirTV Mini streaming device, ($79.99 MSRP), when they prepay for their first month of SLING TV at $35.
