- SLING is giving away $25,000
- SLING TV launches rewards program

ENGLEWOOD, Colo., Feb. 6, 2024 /PRNewswire/ -- SLING TV, the streaming TV provider who puts customers in control of their entertainment, today announced the launch of its first-ever, watch-and-win sweepstakes. Beginning today and continuing through February 19, select SLING subscribers can participate in phase one of The Rewards Program with the chance to be paid for watching their favorite TV shows, sports, news and entertainment.

"SLING is the most flexible streaming service on the market. We designed it to put our customers in control of their entertainment," said Gary Schanman, group president, DISH Video Services. "We're obsessed with making SLING the best and most fun experience possible. That's why we launched our first-ever rewards program. There are lots of different ways to earn entries and compete for thousands of dollars in prizes. Who wouldn't want to get paid to watch the TV they love!"

The Rewards Program will roll out in additional phases to more users across the country, making it available to every subscriber soon. Access to phase one of The Rewards Program is available by invite only to a select number of Orange, Blue and Orange + Blue subscribers, who can earn entries to unlock their chance to win one of more than 30 cash prizes.

One grand prize winner will take home $5,000 for watching TV. Entries into the sweepstakes are earned by watching SLING content for at least one day in the month, through February 19. Customers can earn even more entries by watching for consecutive days. Winners will be notified around February 20.

"We care about our customers. That's why we tailored SLING to be versatile with straightforward base packages and add-on packs that subscribers can tailor to match their personal interests. People should pay for the content they want to watch, not for bloated packages they don't need," added Schanman. "We're excited to begin rewarding them with this program. We're going to roll it out more broadly and you can be sure we'll expand the program soon to offer even more cash and prizes."
