

SLING TV RATED “BEST LIVE TV STREAMING SERVICE OF 2024” BY U.S. NEWS & WORLD REPORT

- Enhanced Viewing Experience with Additional Channels, VOD, and More

ENGLEWOOD, Colo., Oct. 9, 2024 – Sling TV proudly announces its latest accolade as the “Best Live TV Streaming Service of 2024” by U.S. News & World Report. Sling TV received an impressive 4/5 rating, securing the top spot over competitors such as Fubo, YouTube TV, Hulu + Live TV and DIRECTV Stream. The recognition highlights Sling’s superior value, affordability and breadth of content, all while delivering an exceptional viewing experience.

With competitive pricing starting at just $40 per month, Sling TV offers dozens of channels across domestic, international and Latino services, providing subscribers access to popular networks like ESPN, CNN, NFL Network and more. The platform’s free, ad-supported streaming service, Sling Freestream, further enhances its appeal with 600+ channels at no cost.

“Our mission has always been to deliver a comprehensive, flexible and affordable streaming solution,” said Gary Schanman, executive vice president and group president, DISH Video Services. “This honor from U.S. News & World Report solidifies our position as the leading streaming option for viewers who want quality, customization and value.”

Sling TV’s win reflects the platform’s commitment to delivering a premium viewing experience, far exceeding the competition and setting a new benchmark for streaming services.
